

Luk^o 24:1 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices to anoint the body and went to the tomb. 2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, 3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. 5 In their fright the women fell on their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Do not be afraid, for I am alive, though you were looking for me dead." 6 He said to them, "Do not be afraid. Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day rise again." 7 Then they remembered his words. 8 When they returned to Jerusalem, they told all that had happened to the Eleven and to the others. 9 The women, however, were not believed because their words seemed to them like nonsense. 10 It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women who told of this to the apostles, but they did not believe them because their words seemed to them like nonsense. 11 Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. He looked in and saw the empty place, and he went away wondering to himself what had happened. 12 Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. 13 They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. 14 They were walking and discussing these things with each other, but they were kept from recognizing him. 15 He said to them, "What are you discussing together while you walk along?" They stood still, their faces downcast, and said to him, "You are the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know what things have happened here." 16 He said to them, "What things?" 17 They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified for us and buried." 18 He said to them, "How foolish you are and how slow to believe! You believed Moses and the prophets, yet you do not believe what I have said to you." 19 Then he opened their eyes and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. 20 They returned to Jerusalem and told all that had happened to them. 21 While they were talking about these things, he suddenly appeared to them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

S

early in the morning, the women took the spices to anoint the body and went to the tomb, 3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. 5 In their fright the women fell on their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Do not be afraid, for I am alive, though you were looking for me dead." 6 He said to them, "Do not be afraid. Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day rise again." 7 Then they remembered his words. 8 When they returned to Jerusalem, they told all that had happened to the Eleven and to the others. 9 The women, however, were not believed because their words seemed to them like nonsense. 10 It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women who told of this to the apostles, but they did not believe them because their words seemed to them like nonsense. 11 Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. He looked in and saw the empty place, and he went away wondering to himself what had happened. 12 Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. 13 They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. 14 They were walking and discussing these things with each other, but they were kept from recognizing him. 15 He said to them, "What are you discussing together while you walk along?" They stood still, their faces downcast, and said to him, "You are the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know what things have happened here." 16 He said to them, "What things?" 17 They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified for us and buried." 18 He said to them, "How foolish you are and how slow to believe! You believed Moses and the prophets, yet you do not believe what I have said to you." 19 Then he opened their eyes and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. 20 They returned to Jerusalem and told all that had happened to them. 21 While they were talking about these things, he suddenly appeared to them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

redem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. 22 In addition, some of our women told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. 23 They went to the tomb early in the morning but didn't find his body. 24 Then some of our companions had said, but they did not see Jesus." 25 He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Did you not remember that I told you, while I was still with you, that I must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and the people, and be killed, and on the third day be raised up? 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, I have said to you that it was necessary for the Son of Man to suffer these things and then enter his glory." 28 They did not understand what he said to them. 29 As they were going further, he said to them, "Look at my hands and feet. I have flesh and bones, as you see. 30 I brought them here to you, and you did not believe me, though I have spoken to you and shown you the wounds from the nails. Why were your hearts so dull? Did you not believe what I said to you?" 31 Then he showed them his hands and feet. 32 They said to him, "You are the Lord, Jesus of Nazareth!" 33 He said to them, "Why were your hearts so dull? Did you not believe what I said to you?" 34 Then he opened their eyes and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. 35 They returned to Jerusalem and told all that had happened to them. 36 While they were still talking about these things, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." 37 They were startled and frightened, saying to him, "You are a ghost!" 38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Look at my hands and feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see. I have flesh and bones, as you see. 39 Why were your hearts so dull? Did you not believe what I said to you?" 40 Then he showed them his hands and feet. 41 They said to him, "You are the Lord, Jesus of Nazareth!" 42 He said to them, "Why were your hearts so dull? Did you not believe what I said to you?" 43 Then he opened their eyes and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. 44 They returned to Jerusalem and told all that had happened to them. 45 While they were still talking about these things, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." 46 They were startled and frightened, saying to him, "You are a ghost!" 47 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Look at my hands and feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see. I have flesh and bones, as you see. 48 Why were your hearts so dull? Did you not believe what I said to you?" 49 Then he showed them his hands and feet. 50 They said to him, "You are the Lord, Jesus of Nazareth!" 51 He said to them, "Why were your hearts so dull? Did you not believe what I said to you?" 52 Then he opened their eyes and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. 53 They returned to Jerusalem and told all that had happened to them. 54 While they were still talking about these things, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

R

day since all this took place. 22 In addition, some of our women told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. 23 They went to the tomb early in the morning but didn't find his body. 24 Then some of our companions had said, but they did not see Jesus." 25 He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Did you not remember that I told you, while I was still with you, that I must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and the people, and be killed, and on the third day be raised up? 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Scriptures concerning himself, I have said to you that it was necessary for the Son of Man to suffer these things and then enter his glory." 28 They did not understand what he said to them. 29 As they were going further, he said to them, "Look at my hands and feet. I have flesh and bones, as you see. 30 I brought them here to you, and you did not believe me, though I have spoken to you and shown you the wounds from the nails. Why were your hearts so dull? Did you not believe what I said to you?" 31 Then he showed them his hands and feet. 32 They said to him, "You are the Lord, Jesus of Nazareth!" 33 He said to them, "Why were your hearts so dull? Did you not believe what I said to you?" 34 Then he opened their eyes and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. 35 They returned to Jerusalem and told all that had happened to them. 36 While they were still talking about these things, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." 37 They were startled and frightened, saying to him, "You are a ghost!" 38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Look at my hands and feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see. I have flesh and bones, as you see. 39 Why were your hearts so dull? Did you not believe what I said to you?" 40 Then he showed them his hands and feet. 41 They said to him, "You are the Lord, Jesus of Nazareth!" 42 He said to them, "Why were your hearts so dull? Did you not believe what I said to you?" 43 Then he opened their eyes and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. 44 They returned to Jerusalem and told all that had happened to them. 45 While they were still talking about these things, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

I