

Luke 24:1 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices to anoint the body. 2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, 3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 While they were wondering about this, two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. 5 In their fright the women fell on their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? 6 He is not here; he has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day rise again.'" 8 Then they remembered his words. 9 When they returned to Jerusalem, they told all these things to the Eleven and to the other women. 10 It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women who told of this to the apostles. 11 They did not believe the women because their words seemed to them like nonsense. 12 Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. He looked in and saw nothing, and he went back to himself very sad. 13 Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. 14 They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. 15 As they walked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came along with them, but they were kept from recognizing him. 17 He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?" They stood still, their faces downcast, and said to him, "The only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know these things?" 18 He said to them, "What things?" 19 They said, "The things that happened to Jesus of Nazareth, who was proclaimed to be the Messiah and died, and was buried." 20 The women early in the morning, the women took the spices to anoint the body. 2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, 3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 While they were wondering about this, two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. 5 In their fright the women fell on their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? 6 He is not here; he has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day rise again.'" 8 Then they remembered his words. 9 When they returned to Jerusalem, they told all these things to the Eleven and to the other women. 10 It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women who told of this to the apostles. 11 They did not believe the women because their words seemed to them like nonsense. 12 Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. He looked in and saw nothing, and he went back to himself very sad. 13 Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. 14 They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. 15 As they walked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came along with them, but they were kept from recognizing him. 17 He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?" They stood still, their faces downcast, and said to him, "The only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know these things?" 18 He said to them, "What things?" 19 They said, "The things that happened to Jesus of Nazareth, who was proclaimed to be the Messiah and died, and was buried." 20 The women redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. 22 In addition, some women told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. 24 Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see Jesus." 25 He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Did you not remember that the Messiah had to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in the Scriptures concerning himself. 28 As they approached the village to which they were going, they wanted to stop with him, but he insisted that they must not, but to say good-bye to them. 29 He said to them, "Stay with me, and I will give you something to eat." 30 They said to him, "We have brought nothing to eat, for we have been so long on the road and the day is now over." 31 He said to them, "I have bread, but it is not clean because I have not eaten it." 32 They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?" 33 They said to him, "We recognized him when he broke the bread." 36 He stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." 37 They were startled and frightened, saying, "We saw a ghost." 38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Look at my hands and feet. They are here, and I have flesh and bones, as you can see." 39 He showed them his wounds and then said to them, "Peace be with you."

day since all this took place. 22 In addition, some women told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. 24 Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see Jesus." 25 He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Did you not remember that the Messiah had to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in the Scriptures concerning himself. 28 As they approached the village to which they were going, they wanted to stop with him, but he insisted that they must not, but to say good-bye to them. 29 He said to them, "Stay with me, and I will give you something to eat." 30 They said to him, "We have brought nothing to eat, for we have been so long on the road and the day is now over." 31 He said to them, "I have bread, but it is not clean because I have not eaten it." 32 They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?" 33 They said to him, "We recognized him when he broke the bread." 36 He stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." 37 They were startled and frightened, saying, "We saw a ghost." 38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Look at my hands and feet. They are here, and I have flesh and bones, as you can see." 39 He showed them his wounds and then said to them, "Peace be with you."

