

Matthew 16: 21 From that time on Jesus began to explain to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life. 22 Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. "Never, Lord!" he said. "This shall never happen to you!" 23 Jesus turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; you do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns." 24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me will find it. 25 Whoever loves their father or mother more than me does not love me, and does not follow me. 26 Whoever comes to me, accepts my yoke and learns from me, and they will find rest for their souls. 27 For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." 28 "Truly I tell you, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."
