

Matthew 16: 21 From that time on Jesus began to tell them of his journey to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life. 22 Peter took him aside and said, "Lord, do not do this! You are a holy man and God does not permit such things to happen to you." 23 Jesus turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; you do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely your own. 24 Whoever wishes to save their life will lose it, while whoever loses their life for my sake will find it. 25 For what will it profit if I save my life by avoiding the cross? No! What I must do is go to Jerusalem, die, and be buried there. 26 And after three days I will rise again. But no one can take this from me; no, it must be as the Father has decreed. 27 Who is this Son of Man who is coming in glory with angels and will reward each person according to what they have done?" 28 Then all the disciples were amazed at his teaching.

an to explain to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem, be killed by the elders, the chief priests and the scribes, and be raised to life on the third day. 22 Peter took him aside and said, "This shall never happen to you!" 23 Jesus said to him, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; you do not consider the things of God, but only the things of men." 24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wants to save his life must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. Whoever loses his life for me and the gospel will save it, but whoever gains the world and loses his soul or is willing to surrender his soul will lose it. 27 For the Son of Man is going to come in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory, and he will reward each person according to what he has done. 28 I tell you the truth, anyone who stands here with me until the Son of Man comes will be blessed." 29 From that time on Jesus began to teach them that he must go to Jerusalem, suffer many things at the hands of the elders, the chief priests and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said plainly to all, "The Son of Man must be this way." 30 They did not understand what he said to them. 31 Then he went to the temple grounds and began to rebuke them. "Never, Lord!" he said. "This shall never happen to you!" 32 He said to them, "Get behind me, Satan! You are in mind the things of men, not the things of God. 33 For the Son of Man must be this way. 34 I tell you the truth, anyone who wants to save his life must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. 35 Whoever loses his life for me and the gospel will save it, but whoever gains the world and loses his soul or is willing to surrender his soul will lose it. 36 For the Son of Man is going to come in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory, and he will reward each person according to what he has done. 37 I tell you the truth, anyone who stands here with me until the Son of Man comes will be blessed."
