

Luke 24:1 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices to anoint the body. 2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, 3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. 5 In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? 6 He is not here; he has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.'" 8 Then they remembered his words. 9 When they returned to Jerusalem, they told all these things to the Eleven and to the other women. 10 It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women who told of this to the apostles. 11 They did not believe the women because their words seemed to them like nonsense. 12 Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. He looked in and saw nothing, and he went back, wondering to himself what had happened. 13 Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. 14 They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. 15 As they walked and talked, and it was already nearly evening, they met a man who was walking along by himself. He appeared to ask them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?" They stood still, their faces downcast, and said to him, "You are the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know what things have happened here." 16 He said to them, "What things?" They said to him, "That Jesus of Nazareth, who was proclaimed by the prophets, powerful and wonderful in his works, had been crucified for us and buried. 17 Our women went to the tomb early this morning, but they did not find his body. They told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. 18 Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women said, but they did not see Jesus." 19 He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 20 Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" 21 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in the Scriptures concerning himself. 22 In addition, some of our companions had said, but they did not see Jesus." 23 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Believe all that the prophets have spoken! 24 Then some of our companions had said, but they did not see Jesus." 25 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in the Scriptures concerning himself. 28 As they were going, Jesus continued on ahead of them. He was going farther, and they were following him. 29 He was nearly evening, and he was alone. So he went on with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and ate, and they recognized him, and he disappeared. 30 Their hearts were burning within them while he talked with them, and they recognized him, and he disappeared. 31 They got up and returned to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together. 32 They told them all that had happened. 33 They found the women and those with them, assembled together and had appeared to Simon. 34 When the two women recognized by them when he broke the bread. 35 When the two women recognized by them when he broke the bread. 36 He stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." 37 They were startled and frightened, and they saw a ghost. 38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Look at my hands and feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see. I have flesh and bones, as you can see." 39 He showed them his wounds. 40 While they still disbelieved and were doubting, because of their hardness of heart, he said to them, "Go and tell your brothers and sisters, 'The Lord has risen and is appearing to you.'"

S

early in the morning, the women took the spices to anoint the body. 2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, 3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. 5 In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? 6 He is not here; he has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.'" 8 Then they remembered his words. 9 When they returned to Jerusalem, they told all these things to the Eleven and to the other women. 10 It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women who told of this to the apostles. 11 They did not believe the women because their words seemed to them like nonsense. 12 Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. He looked in and saw nothing, and he went back, wondering to himself what had happened. 13 Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. 14 They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. 15 As they walked and talked, and it was already nearly evening, they met a man who was walking along by himself. He appeared to ask them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?" They stood still, their faces downcast, and said to him, "You are the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know what things have happened here." 16 He said to them, "What things?" They said to him, "That Jesus of Nazareth, who was proclaimed by the prophets, powerful and wonderful in his works, had been crucified for us and buried. 17 Our women went to the tomb early this morning, but they did not find his body. They told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. 18 Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women said, but they did not see Jesus." 19 He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 20 Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" 21 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in the Scriptures concerning himself. 22 In addition, some of our companions had said, but they did not see Jesus." 23 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Believe all that the prophets have spoken! 24 Then some of our companions had said, but they did not see Jesus." 25 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in the Scriptures concerning himself. 28 As they were going, Jesus continued on ahead of them. He was going farther, and they were following him. 29 He was nearly evening, and he was alone. So he went on with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and ate, and they recognized him, and he disappeared. 30 Their hearts were burning within them while he talked with them, and they recognized him, and he disappeared. 31 They got up and returned to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together. 32 They told them all that had happened. 33 They found the women and those with them, assembled together and had appeared to Simon. 34 When the two women recognized by them when he broke the bread. 35 When the two women recognized by them when he broke the bread. 36 He stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." 37 They were startled and frightened, and they saw a ghost. 38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Look at my hands and feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see. I have flesh and bones, as you can see." 39 He showed them his wounds. 40 While they still disbelieved and were doubting, because of their hardness of heart, he said to them, "Go and tell your brothers and sisters, 'The Lord has risen and is appearing to you.'" redem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. 22 In addition, some of our companions had said, but they did not see Jesus." 23 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Believe all that the prophets have spoken! 24 Then some of our companions had said, but they did not see Jesus." 25 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in the Scriptures concerning himself. 28 As they were going, Jesus continued on ahead of them. He was going farther, and they were following him. 29 He was nearly evening, and he was alone. So he went on with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and ate, and they recognized him, and he disappeared. 30 Their hearts were burning within them while he talked with them, and they recognized him, and he disappeared. 31 They got up and returned to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together. 32 They told them all that had happened. 33 They found the women and those with them, assembled together and had appeared to Simon. 34 When the two women recognized by them when he broke the bread. 35 When the two women recognized by them when he broke the bread. 36 He stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." 37 They were startled and frightened, and they saw a ghost. 38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Look at my hands and feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see. I have flesh and bones, as you can see." 39 He showed them his wounds. 40 While they still disbelieved and were doubting, because of their hardness of heart, he said to them, "Go and tell your brothers and sisters, 'The Lord has risen and is appearing to you.'" day since all this took place. 22 In addition, some of our companions had said, but they did not see Jesus." 23 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Believe all that the prophets have spoken! 24 Then some of our companions had said, but they did not see Jesus." 25 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in the Scriptures concerning himself. 28 As they were going, Jesus continued on ahead of them. He was going farther, and they were following him. 29 He was nearly evening, and he was alone. So he went on with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and ate, and they recognized him, and he disappeared. 30 Their hearts were burning within them while he talked with them, and they recognized him, and he disappeared. 31 They got up and returned to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together. 32 They told them all that had happened. 33 They found the women and those with them, assembled together and had appeared to Simon. 34 When the two women recognized by them when he broke the bread. 35 When the two women recognized by them when he broke the bread. 36 He stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." 37 They were startled and frightened, and they saw a ghost. 38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Look at my hands and feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see. I have flesh and bones, as you can see." 39 He showed them his wounds. 40 While they still disbelieved and were doubting, because of their hardness of heart, he said to them, "Go and tell your brothers and sisters, 'The Lord has risen and is appearing to you.'"

E

N

+

