

is not boastful, it is not proud. 5 It is not rude. It is not self-seeking, it is not an ^{ord} of wrongs. 6 Love does not delight in sin; it always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. 7 When they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be removed. 8 When there are prophecies, they will be removed; when there are ^{child}s, I talk like a child. 9 For we ^{know} in part and we prophesy in part; we perfect ^{know} as we are known. 10 When I became a man, I put away the childish ways. 11 In this we were all ^{as} ^{years}. 12 For we speak as children, God has not given us the spirit of wisdom but of ^{childish} ^{wisdom}. 13 And we see face to face, now partially, but then fully. 14 And we know in part, but then we shall know fully, as we are known. 15 Now we ^{know} in part, but then we shall know fully. 16 Now we prophesy in part, but then we shall not prophesy in part, but fully. 17 Now we compare spiritual things with spiritual things, but then we shall not compare spiritual things with spiritual things. 18 We know in part, but then we shall know fully. 19 Now we ^{see} in a mirror dimly, but then we shall see fully. 20 Now I ^{know} in part, but then I shall know fully. 21 Now I ^{know} partially, but then I shall know fully. 22 Now I ^{know} in part, but then I shall know fully. 23 Now I ^{know} in part, but then I shall know fully. 24 Now I ^{know} in part, but then I shall know fully. 25 Now I ^{know} in part,
